DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

1. This action is in reply to Arguments/Remarks filed December 21, 2007.
2. Claims 1-6 are currently pending and have been examined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 1-6 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1, 3, and 5 recite “without any user input subsequent to the activation of the second button”, however it is not clear to one of ordinary skill what Applicant intends by this limitation, as Applicant has not limited the “user input”. For example, turning on a computer, checking e-mail, opening an application or a file, and accessing different features of an application (e.g. “print”, selecting a font) are all examples of user input, which take place, or can take place while performing a data processing action (In re Zletz, 13 USPQ2d 1320 (Fed. Cir. 1989)).

Claims 2, 4, and 6 are also rejected as claim depends from either claim 1, 3 or 5.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-6 are rejected under U.S.C. 102(b) as being unpatentable over Vance, U.S. Patent No. 6,442,526.

Claims 1, 3, 5:

Vance, as shown, discloses the following limitations:

displaying controls including a first button and a second button (see figures 15A-G, top menu bar)

in response to each activation of the first button: creating a new activity item (see column 4, lines 66-67, column 5, lines 1-7)

establishing a user-selected activity type for the created activity item (see column 8, lines 66-67, column 9, lines 1-10) creating an expense item (see column 8, lines 66-67, column 9, lines 1-10)

consulting a predetermined mapping from activity types to expense types to automatically establish an expense type for the created expense item (see column 8, lines 66-67, column 9, lines 1-10)

creating a new expense report (see column 8, lines 66-67, column 9, lines 1-10) adding all created expense items to the created expense report (see column 8, lines 66-67, column 9, lines 1-10) submitting the created expense report containing the added created expense items (see column 13, lines 26-36)

Claims 2, 4, 6:

Vance, as shown, discloses the following limitations:

establishing for the created activity item a date designated by a user for the activity item (see column 8, lines 66-67, column 9, lines 1-10)

without user input specifying a date for the created expense item, establishing for the created expense item the same date designated by a user for the activity item (see column 8, lines 66-67, column 9, lines 1-10)

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-6 have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
